On September 5th, my son [REDACTED] slept over William Sweeney house. While he was in the care of Mr. & Mrs. Sweeney he was molested by Mr. Sweeney two times. On October 10th, [REDACTED] and I went to the police to report this incident.

When the police went to speak to Mr. Sweeney, he admitted that what [REDACTED] said was true.

I as a parent strongly urge the Philadelphia Council never to allow Mr. Sweeney to be involved in any form of Scouting.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

SUBJECT: William Sweeney

Dear Dick:

Thanks for the information you recently sent me concerning William Sweeney. I agree with your action of placing him on the Confidential File and not having him registered with the Boy Scouts of America.

I am enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed, with as much information as you have available. A copy of a document with his signature would, also, aid in the identification process.

If anything further needs to be done related to any legal action, please do not hesitate to supply us with that information.

Thanks for your help in protecting the youth of America.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director
Registration Service

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Paul:

J
Enclosed is a letter from [REDACTED] regarding an incident which involved her son and Mr. William Sweeney, Den Leader, Pack ~~324~~ 394. This did not happen at an actual Scouting event, but certainly did happen because of an acquaintance through Scouting. I haven't spoken at length with [REDACTED].

I understand the policy for investigating and, although there are no plans at present to prosecute Mr. Sweeney, the police have advised him to withdraw from all activities in Scouting, as well as Little League. I understand this has been done.

It will not be necessary to separate Mr. Sweeney from the Scouting program since the charter for Pack ~~324~~ 394 expires on October 31. However, please use this as authority to place him in our confidential file so that he cannot register again as a member of the Boy Scouts of America. Please, also, advise me what else needs to be done to assure this action is taken.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Diek
